Cancellation Policy

Life happens, sickness happens too! We want to be as flexible and as understanding as possible when things don't go as planned and the unexpected takes hold. 24 hour notice (or more) is required for all cancellations and rescheduling. However, due to the nature of our business, sometimes we need to encourage accountability and commitment. Please understand that a full schedule is how we make a living and our mission is to help our clients to succeed and accomplish their goals. This policy applies to prepaid hours and membership hours. Prepaid hours and membership hours are subject to cancellation fees as defined below. This policy has been established with love and is intended for the best interest of both parties. We appreciate your understanding.

Cancellation fees will be incurred after 2 cancellations and are as follows:

- ❖ Third cancellation = 50% payment of scheduled time
- ❖ Fourth cancellation = 100% payment of scheduled time

* Small quantities of unwanted, usable items, that fit in our work vehicles, can be taken for donation at the end of your session. Excessively dirty items, toxic chemicals, fuels, rodent or insect infested items or items that have mold or mildew will need to be hauled away by our junk team. For large quantities of junk a larger truck may need to be rented at the clients expense.

 We do not pack flat screen TV's
